CMSA DONATES $5,000 TO NORTHERN CALIFORNIA SPECIAL OLYMPICS

CERRITOS, Calif. (May 8, 2018) — During its 100th Annual Convention, the California Moving & Storage Association (CMSA) announced its donation of $5,000 to the Northern California Special Olympics on Saturday, April 21, 2018, at the Hyatt Regency Sacramento in Sacramento, Calif.

Northern California Special Olympics Athlete Loretta Dobbins, her mother, Kathie Dobbins, and Special Olympics VP of Regional Sports Jeff Ruthenberg attended the awards luncheon to accept the donation on behalf of the organization. Loretta, who had been involved with the Special Olympics' program for a number of years, told attendees about her experiences participating in events and thanked members for their donation.

On behalf of the Northern California Special Olympics, Ruthenberg reiterated the organization's appreciation for the support provided by CMSA's generous donation.

CMSA chapters throughout California hold various fundraising events during the year to support the CMSA Charities Fund.

The California Moving & Storage Association (CMSA) is a nonprofit trade association representing more than 375 licensed and insured movers operating in California. The CMSA also includes more than 195 associate member companies. Established in 1916, the CMSA is comprised of 12 chapters strategically located throughout California.
